FACULTY OF ENGINEERING
URBAN PLANNING DEPARTMENT

I would like to offer my highest recommendations regarding the application of Mohamed Elsayed who is currently studying Medicine at Ainshams University, Cairo.

Mr Mohamed Elsayed was a medical volunteer at the Ezbet Project and gave an excellent lecture about hypertension to locals under the supervision of me, Dr. Sabine Roelcke. He learnt from my experience that volunteering in the medical field will have a very positive effects for his career. He benefited by developing his communication skills and renewing his knowledge by preparation for the sessions. He followed all instructions precisely and enjoyed being guided by an experienced doctor. He knew how to deal with people from different backgrounds and improved a lot while supporting the session. A appreciated all his input, the workshop benefitted from him a lot, it was my pleasure to work with him in the sessions.

Mr Mohamed Elsayed's was my Senior Assistant in the Ezbet Project Health Workshop 2016, Cooperation University Stuttgart- Rotary Club Sindelfingen- DAAD- Ain Shams University Cairo. From my point of few I see his Tasks:

- Assess with Experts the living & health conditions of the Ezbet residents.
- Translate workshop content into simple Arabic that could be understood by the attendees all ages and from different educational backgrounds.
- Explaining and simplifying workshop contents.
- Keeping the attendees interested and Motivated.
- Handing out leaflets, pamphlets and giveaways.

his Skills:

- fluent in English.
- problem Solver and self-motivated.
- an Easy going person with an ability to interact strictly and professionally.
- organized and computer literate.

His additional Tasks:

- Work with the Experts on the preparations of the Workshop Materials and Activities.
- Organize the workshop by keeping the attendees settled down and maintaining their comfort.
- Keep young children calm and occupied to ensure their complete understanding.
- Hand out leaflets, pamphlets and giveaways.
- Run small errands and specific purpose that appear during the workshops

His Experiences

- Team head at "Ainshams Model World Health Organization " (2017)
- Medical volunteer at Ezbet project (2016)
- Participation in Cairo international Model United Nations(2016)
- Medical volunteer in EL-FIT eve by Reebok (2016)
- Attended "TED-MED" conference (2016)

From my Point of view he is an excellent candidate and accepting him into the program will be a benefit for him and for the program as well. There is no doubt that he will be a trustworthy candidate I am sure he will do his duties to your full satisfaction and will meet all expectation.

For completing the course

Structured Programming using C++ Programming Language

This course is designed for students with no prior programming experience to understand computer programming as a professional. The course develops algorithmic design and problem solving using structured programming techniques and the C++ programming language. Programming emphasis will be on block structures and stepwise refinement of algorithms. Language syntax, data types, and control structures are presented. Data structures presented include one- and two-dimensional arrays. Search and sort algorithms are developed. Modular coding, parameter passage, scope, local and global variables, and debugging techniques are stressed.
